

Table of Contents

Foreword vii

Introduction ix

Differences between the workplace and school ❖ Workplace skills employers require ❖ Defining success ❖ Purpose of this book

Section I: Introduction to the Workplace 1

1. First Days on the Job 3

Challenges you may face in the early days ❖ Stories about people like you ❖ How your outlook impacts your success

2. Look and Act Like a Professional 15

First impressions make a difference ❖ Your appearance counts ❖ Your actions reflect your attitude ❖ Etiquette is more than knowing which fork to use ❖ Polishing your professional image

3. Learning the Ground Rules 33

The importance of fitting in ❖ Elements of an organization's culture ❖ The difference between formal and informal rules ❖ Clues to understanding your organization ❖ Adapting to your organization's culture

4. Business Acumen 49

Finite resources force choices ❖ Revenues, expenses and profits ❖ The language of business ❖ Understanding how decisions are made ❖ Developing your business acumen

Section II: Performing Your Job 65

5. Understanding Your Assignment 67

Establishing a common understanding of what it entails ❖ Taking the initiative to avoid false starts ❖ Asking the right questions ❖ Reporting status of your work

6. Planning Your Assignment 77

The benefit of working from a plan ❖ Steps for writing an effective plan ❖ Identifying and managing risk ❖ Your role in planning your assignments

7. Performance Feedback and Compensation 93

Feedback is a chance to improve ❖ Formal vs. informal feedback ❖ Getting the most out of an appraisal ❖ Disappointing reviews—now what? ❖ Compensation is more than a raise

Section III: Mastering Your Position 115

8. Mastering Your Job 117

Just doing your job isn't enough ❖ Efficiency vs. effectiveness ❖ Measuring your progress

9. Problem Solving Part 1: How to Think! 129

What is creativity? ❖ Obstacles to creative thinking ❖ What is critical thinking? ❖ Obstacles to thinking critically ❖ The role of knowledge

10. Problem Solving Part 2: A Process 149

What exactly is a problem? ❖ Key steps toward solving any problem ❖ Problem solving requires both creativity and critical thinking

Section IV: Interpersonal Skills 167

11. Written Workplace Communications 169

Elements of effective communications ❖ Barriers to effective writing ❖ Written business communication pitfalls ❖ Timeline for improving your business writing

12. Spoken Workplace Communications 189

Elements of effective spoken communications ❖ Barriers to the effective spoken word ❖ Pitfalls of spoken business communication ❖ Timeline for becoming a great speaker

13. Managing Office Relationships 213

Classmates vs. Officemates ❖ Diversity is physical, experiential & cognitive ❖ Paradox of the Golden Rule ❖ Assessing your relationships ❖ Developing a mentor

14. Managing Customer Relationships 231

Internal vs. External Customers ❖ Understanding Customer Needs ❖ Delivering Results that Meet Expectations ❖ Building and Maintaining the Relationship

Section V: Personal Management Skills 243

15. Achieving Work-life Balance 245

Determining your goals and priorities ❖ Managing your time ❖ Maintaining your health ❖ Dealing with the unexpected ❖ Creating balance

16. Managing Your Personal Finances 267

It's All About Making Choices ❖ Align Your Spending With Your Goals ❖ Manage and Protect What You Already Have ❖ Saving and Investing Choices ❖ Make the Most of Your Company Benefits ❖ Improve Your Financial Literacy

What Now? 289

Don't become complacent ❖ Commit to continuous learning ❖

Work to build a life ❖ Take initiative ❖ Define and achieve the success you imagine

Appendix A: Problem Solving Skills 291

Appendix B: Tips and Tricks for Presentations 297

Acknowledgements 302

About the Authors 303

Index 305